The splash pads, fountains, and water games will be active from 3-6 p.m. Live music will begin at 3 p.m. with funk-rock band Jupiter Holiday. The mountain-rock band, Great Bait, will follow at 5 p.m. After wrapping up the water activities at 6 p.m., The Grant Webb Band will play country-rock style music at 7 p.m.

“This is the most exciting thing that has happened in downtown Caldwell since I was a little kid,” said Garret Nancolas, Mayor of Caldwell. “This will be a gathering place for families, bringing citizens back and reestablishing the downtown as the heartbeat of the city.”

An open house to preview Indian Creek Plaza while it is still under construction, “Sneak Peek #2,” will be held on Thursday, May 10, 2018, from 4-6 p.m. at the Destination Caldwell Office, 106 S. Kimball Ave. The event is free and open to the public. Attendees are advised to wear comfortable clothing and close-toed shoes.
